As to the Office, Nancy reported that: On April 24, there was an Office meeting with the volunteers (3 couldn't attend); Amanda answers phone calls to the Office the first weekend of each month, Sharon the second one, Mary Jo the third, Nancy the fourth (and fifth), and Cathy K on Fridays; the annual AFG Picnic will be held on Sunday July 12th at Brookside Valley Event Site (see website flyer for details; contact Nancy or Sheila as to speakers; and grill assistant needed).

As to Public Outreach (PO), Regina reported that: CWRU allowed PO to speak, among others, regarding controlled substances; sending posters, Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism, and business cards (but not books) to the seven County Library hubs; and connecting with a social media person.

Patty gave her Treasurer's Report (TR) which consisted of the 2025 Annual Report 2-page Excel spreadsheet that will be published in Hi-Lites. A few line items were discussed. Also, the Office received a Discover class action settlement opt-in letter, and it will be brought in next month for review. The budget committee will meet at Nancy's house on May 28 at 4 pm (Merri, Kathy M., Dan & possibly Susan Mi. plus Nancy). There were no other reports.
